ABOUT THIS FIG

College Connections

Activate your role as a global citizen with this introduction to Italian language and cultures. In Bella Italia! you will learn to communicate in Italian in real-life situations and you will explore some of Italy's most significant legacies. In addition to learning to make pizza in italiano, you will investigate topics such as the Roman Empire, Renaissance art and thought, Italian-American culture and film, and Mediterranean migration. In this FIG students develop personalized research projects and strengthen both their critical and creative thinking.

First Year Italian

Italian 101 is the first in a series of Italian Courses and is designed for students who have no previous Italian instruction. The course emphasizes oral communication and listening comprehension in a culturally authentic context. Students will be exposed to simple Italian texts in order to develop strong reading skills. Students will also work on writing skills, starting with short compositions and building up to longer ones. The course will be conducted almost exclusively in Italian, and all students will be expected to participate actively using the language skills they are acquiring.

Cultural Legacies of Italy

This course explores some of the outstanding contributions that the Italian peninsula has made to western culture, and the central place that Italy occupies in our understanding of western civilization. We will look at various art forms: painting, architecture, film, sculpture, opera, as well as different kinds of writing, including poetry, history, art history, sociology, journalism, opera libretto, fiction, memoir, and others kinds of writing on Italy and the Italians.

NEXT STEPS

After you're registered for your FIG, you will want to check out the Meet Your FIG page (<https://fyp.uoregon.edu/fall-2020-figs>). This page will have everything you need to know before the beginning of fall term, including how to email your FIG Assistant, if you have a summer assignment, and when you will be meeting your FIG for the first time in September. In order to prepare for your coursework and be notified about important academic deadlines you will want to download the "Canvas" and "Navigate" apps to your phone or any device you will be using. If you have questions about anything, make sure you email your FIG Assistant – they are here to help!
